Name: Vicki J Adams

Position: Editor, Veterinary Record Open

I have read and understood the BMJ policy on declaration of interests and declare the following interests:

- 1) Self-employed consultant veterinary epidemiologist working on various projects.
- 2) Consultant paid to carry out some epidemiological and statistical work on a longevity study of Labrador Retrievers for Spectrum Brands (formerly Proctor & Gamble) since June 2014 and a member of their Longevity Council (unpaid position).
- 3) Contracted to run a C-SQP training and review course for Costco 1-3 times a year since 2010.
- 4) Employed part-time as the Acting Chief Executive of the Animal Cancer Trust charity.
- 5) Formerly contracted to do some epidemiological and statistical consulting work for MARS at the Waltham Centre for Pet Nutrition, Nai-Chieh Lui's PhD student project on BOAS at Cambridge University Veterinary School, Virbac Animal Health, BSAVA PG Cert and Master's programs, Dechra, David Marlin Equine Consultant and the BVOA. These projects have been completed and I am not associated/affiliated or in any paid relationship with these companies/organisations since then.
- 6) I have written chapters in various books and received an honourarium but no royalties on those chapters.
- 7) Member of the BVA, BSAVA, SVEPM, RCVS with all fees paid by me.
- 8) Member of the Advisory Group for the CEVM Modular Training Partnership program funded by BBSRC at the University of Nottingham (travel expenses to meetings paid).
